PATIENTS - PEOPLE - IDENTITY

Marie Campagna joined Hôtel-Dieu Grace in 2012 as the Vice President of Strategic Information Management & CFO. She assumed the role of Vice President of Operations & CFO in October 2013 and was promoted to the Executive Vice President of Operations and CFO in September 2014. In January 2017, Marie was named Vice President Corporate Services, New Business Development & CFO. In this role, Marie provides strategic leadership to Strategy & New Business Development, Finance & Hospitality Services, Risk Management & Hospitality Services, Technology and Facilities.

Marie holds a CPA (CMA) certification, a Masters in Business Administration from the University of Windsor, and is a Fellow and life member of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Ontario. She is currently enrolled in the Directors Education Program and is working to achieve her ICD.D designation.

With over 30 years of progressive experience in the public and private sectors, Marie has driven a strong track record of results, execution excellence, and improved operational efficiency while supporting patient care needs and the values of the organization. Prior to her career in healthcare, Marie spent five years in the auto industry, 12 years in logistics and four years in pharmaceuticals; primarily in finance and operations support.

Marie currently serves on the board and governance committee of Transform Shared Services Organization, and on the governance and nomination committee of Medbuy. She is currently the board chair of Utilismart Corp, and has held many board positions with the Society of Management Accountants as well as Essex Power Corporation.

Marie comes from a very large family and has been married to Silvano for over 35 years. They have two sons Kevin (Ashley) and Craig (Jennifer). The loves of her life are her grandchildren, Ella and Austin.

Marie says, "Coming to Hôtel-Dieu in 2012 felt very much like coming home to my family. My values are so strongly aligned with those of this wonderful organization and I am committed to our shared purpose and strategy."
